

My comments concern the Telecommunications Relay Services and Speech to Speech. The outreach program should be funded by NECA to provide needed resources to small states as well as large ones. The users must have access from all phones and the ability to increase the volume as necessary. The communications assistants should originate from their own states because of local accents and be well trained in procedures for revoicing. Thank you for considering my opinions.